Seasonal Customers:

Any customer who uses water on a seasonal basis, and who requests that service be discontinued for a portion of a calendar year, shall, in addition to any charges related to restoration or reconnection of service, be billed, and shall pay (prior to restoration of service) an amount equal to what would have been charged for the months the service had been disconnected. This includes the cumulative total of monthly customer charges, in addition to any other charges that would have applied in each month that the service was disconnected.
